Re: ROHS Directive

Servo Halbeck industrial products for measurement and control applications manufactured under the Lead Free Program are in compliance with the European Union Directive 2002/95/EC (ROHS Directive) of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 January 2003.

Servo Halbeck products that have been identified as ROHS compliant do not exceed the maximum for the following 6 designated substances:

Substance	Maximum Limit (ppm)
Cadmium (cd)	100
Lead (pb)	1000 (1)
Mercury (hg)	1000
Hexavalent chromium (cr6)	1000
Poly Brominated Biphenyls (PBB)	1000
Poly Brominated Diphenyl ethers (PBDE)	1000

(1) Maximum limit (ppm does not apply to applications for which exemptions have been granted by the ROHS Directive).

Effective July 1, 2006, all new servo Halbeck designs (products) that fall within the scope of this Directive, will be free of or contain no more than the permitted quantities of the substances mentioned above. Products for which compliance is not legally required, servo Halbeck will continue efforts to meet the ROHS material restrictions covered by the Directive as soon as possible. Existing products already meet the Directive to a large extent with the exception of a few components with extremely long delivery times for ROHS compliant components.

The statement in this letter regarding ROHS compliance and lead content do not extend to, or apply to any product subjected to unintended contamination, misuse, neglect, accident, improper installation, or to use in violation of instructions furnished by servo Halbeck. For further information please refer to the EU Directive 2002/95/EC.
